Featured Fine Artists

Holly Mae Pendergast is originally from Sugar Grove, North Carolina in the heart of the Appalachian Mountain Range. She now resides full time in her small cabin/studio about 15 miles outside of Park City, Utah along the Wasatch Mountain Range. Paintings shown may be different than available at auction.

Tyler Haney is originally from Renton, Washington. Mr. Haney studied Illustration at the Academy of Art College in San Francisco from 1998-1999. Later, Mr. Haney studied Fine art at the School of Visual Arts where he obtained a degree in Fine arts in 2004. Soon after Graduating from SVA, Tyler worked for the established painter photographer, Marilyn Minter. While working For Marilyn Minter, Tyler had the opportunity to assist Mrs. Minter in preparation for her first one woman show at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art. Presently Mr. Haney is working diligently on his own composition in hopes of making his mark in the Seattle art scene.

Tamara Codorwas born and raised in Brooklyn, NY. She studied classical painting throughout high school with a private instructor, Andrew Reiss. After graduating early she received the Elizabeth Greensheilds grant for painting which enabled her to move to the Loire Valley, France, to study with Reiss's former instructor, Ted Jacobs. Since then she worked at The Daily News tehn and began work as a commercial mural artist for private clients and clients like the Van Kleeef & Arpels jewelry section of Bergdorf Goodman. She moved to Seattle recently.
